Adopt a Horse!

The quality of our therapy relies on having well trained, healthy horses. Feed, blacksmith services, and veterinary care form a substantial portion of our budget - in fact, it costs an average of $400 per month to care for one horse. Some of our horses are older; their patience and "I've seen it all" attitudes makes them perfect for many of our riders. But, like all of us as we age, they require a little bit more care and oversight -- and dollars -- to maintain their health. Would you join us as a partner today and consider sponsoring a horse for a month, several months or a year? Your participation would help to ensure that our horses receive the best of care and that our riders fully experience the many benefits of quality equestrian therapy. You can be assured your gift will touch many lives and will be deeply appreciated.
